

LFSC Cowboy Event Guide

LFSC Responsibilities

The Logan's Ferry Sportsmen's Club will be referred to as LFSC or the Club. The club will provide the following for sponsoring Cowboy Action Shooting Events:

- A. Post the cowboy shooting schedule on the club calendar.
- B. The following three ranges will be used for the cowboy shoot. Open Bays 3 and 4 and the John Wayne range.
- C. Post the closing of the steel plate range for shooter orientation and safety meeting on the club calendar.
- D. Space in Maintenance Building #3, (MB3) for storing the cowboy props, plates and stands. Anything stored in MB3 is the property of LFSC.
- E. Access to the Snack Shack for Shooter registration and storage of equipment and supplies.
- F. Equipment and supplies will be purchased by the Club at the Boards discretion.
- G. A vehicle and trailer owned and maintained by LFSC will be provided for transporting props, steel, stands, signs etc.
- H. The shoots will be conducted on the Second Saturday of the month from March to November weather permitting. The schedule may be changed by sending an email request to lfscmail@gmail.com and is subject to availability.
- I. LFSC will program the gate to be open from 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM on the Saturday of the shoot
- J. LFSC will assign a pin to open the gate for entrance and exit. The pin is to be used only for the event. Any other use is prohibited. The pin will expire at the end of the season and reinstated at the beginning of the season.
- K. Access to the Club grounds, storage building and Snack Shack is at the discretion of the LFSC Board.
- L. Pick up the shoot event fee from the Drop Box and give it to the LFSC Treasurer for deposit in the bank.

Cowboy Responsibilities

- 1. Provide a shooting schedule to the club at the beginning of the year specifying the weekends the shoots will take place.
- 2. Maintain the entrance speed limit of 10 mph when entering or leaving the club grounds.
- 3. Keep the access pin confidential.
- 4. Set up, take down and store all props, steel, and signs used for the shoot. All items will be returned to Maintenance Building #3 at the end of the shoot.
- 5. Pick up any trash and empty any Snack Shack trash containers into the dumpster.

6. Complete the LFSC Event Activity Document and collect the event fee. The event activity document should contain the number of participants, amount collected and any additional information.
7. Any items made available to the participants such as refreshments, food, gifts or awards should be donated or paid for by the participants.
8. The club will allow reimbursements for snacks up to $15.00. This money will be withdrawn from the Cowboy Registration Shooting Fees. Receipts must accompany purchases made.
9. No purchases will be reimbursed unless prior approval is given by the LFSC Board.
10. No personal items shall be stored on the premises. Personal items used during the shoots will be removed after the shoot is completed.
11. There will be no construction of props on the premises. Props should be made off premises from donated materials. If the prop is to remain on LFSC premises it becomes the property of LFSC.
12. The collected fees and event document shall be placed in the Club Drop Box in the foyer of the club at the end of the shoot. Promptly place the amount collected in an envelope and put in the Drop Box in the foyer of the club. Envelopes are available in the foyer.
13. If the kitchen items in the Snack Shack are used, they should be cleaned and returned to their proper location.
14. All correspondence should be through lfscmail@gmail.com. Using the club email will provide a record of the request and the disposition.
15. Provide a waiver document for shooters to sign at the beginning of the season and signed by subsequent new shooters that participate in future events
16. Attached is the LFSC Cowboy Event Waiver that must be completed and signed by all participants
